To Whom It May Concern

It is with great pleasure that Bathurst Regional Council provides its support for the feature film project 'King of the Mountain'.

Bathurst is home to Mount Panorama, indisputably a Mecca for motor racing fans all over Australia and around the world. On 16 April 1938, Mount Panorama attracted an overwhelming 20,000 spectators to its first race, The Australian Tourist Trophy. In 2012, the Supercheap Bathurst 1000 attracted over 185,000 spectators over four days. The race now attracts worldwide media coverage including the United States due to the calibre of the event and the first class teams it attracts.

The feature film project "King of the Mountain" will assist in the promotion of Mount Panorama and Bathurst to a national and international audience. Bathurst attracts in excess of one million people whom simply 'drive' the track to recreate the thrill of watching the event on DVD. Bathurst Regional Council feels strongly that the feature film will be supported strongly by the target demographics and motoring enthusiasts around the world.

Bathurst Regional Council supports JPL Productions in the making of the feature film 'King of the Mountain' and encourages the support of the film in what Council anticipates will be an iconic feature film produced in Australia.

Yours faithfully
